

October 15th

Time: 8:00 pm

Place: USU Institute Building

As a nationally-acclaimed and award-winning a cappella group, T Minus 5 is known for delivering a high-energy musical performance that combines pop, classic rock, a bit of country, and even elements of comedy.

The group has been together since 2000 and traveled throughout the country performing for Universities, Arts Councils, city events, and corporate conventions. Simulating all instrument sounds with just their voices, T Minus 5 is a high-energy a cappella group providing fun for the whole family.

Throughout the past six years, the vocal band has produced four CD's, and is particularly excited about their latest album titled, Road Trip. The Recorded A Cappella Review Board (RARB) has said Road Trip has "Solid singing, inoffensive soloists, masculinity with a soft side. A little bit country, a little bit rock and roll."

Other highlights include sharing the stage with Grammy Award Winning pop artist Christopher Cross, Entertainer of the year Neal McCoy, LA Music Award Winner Carly Goodwin, country artists Jamie O'Neil, Kevin Sharp, Ryan Shupe and the Rubberband, Barry Carl formerly of Rockapella and internationally acclaimed group The Nylons and many others. T Minus 5 is a vocal adventure that magically presents the power of the human voice for a high-energy performance of pure enjoyment and musical fascination!

Chieko Okazaki has an extensive background in the field of education. During her professional career she taught school in Hawaii, Utah, Colorado, and eventually became an elementary school principal. After retirement she supervised student teachers and mentored struggling readers. Mrs. Okazaki is founder and president of The Children's Reading Foundation of Utah. She has served on numerous boards, including Southern Virginia University Board of Trustees and first counselor in the worldwide Relief Society presidency (women's service organization) of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (1990 to 1997). She is an award winning Christian author, whose bestselling titles include Cat's Cradle, Lighten Up!, Aloha, Sanctuary, Being Enough, and her most recent What A Friend We Have in Jesus. She is sought after as an inspirational speaker, enlightening her audiences with practical advice and encouragement.

Janice Kapp Perry was born in Ogden, Utah, raised in Vale, Oregon, and currently lives in Provo, Utah. She and her husband, Douglas, have five children and 13 grandchildren. Through the years, they have also had many foster children. Janice received her musical training at Brigham Young University in Provo and has been writing and recording gospel music for the past 30 years. She composed the hymn As Sisters in Zion for the LDS hymnbook and several songs in the Primary songbook. She has served as Relief Society president in her Provo ward and retired from singing with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir in 1999. The Perrys recently returned from serving in the Chile Santiago West Mission, and are currently serving a church service mission in a Spanish ward in Provo, Utah.
